

Art at Half Moon

Since 2012, Half Moon has collected a range of art from previous exhibitions to put on display throughout the building, in meeting rooms, offices, passageways and other surprising places. How many can you find?

About Half Moon

Half Moon is a vibrant young people's theatre in Limehouse, East London, offering a theatre programme which attracts thousands of people to the building each year. Our professional theatre productions for young audiences tour throughout the UK.

We also have an extensive Creative Learning programme, giving children and young people from birth to 18 (or 25 for disabled young people), an opportunity to participate in a variety of creative activities in schools, community settings and in our own building.

The company is one of Arts Council England's National Portfolio Organisations and also receives grants from the London Borough of Tower Hamlets. Each year we have to raise over £150,000 in additional grants and donations, so please contact us if you can help in any way.

Mailing List

If you would like to be added to our mailing list for future exhibitions, please leave your contact details with staff at the box office or in the office. Alternatively, you can sign up via our website, www.halfmoon.org.uk.

LINES, SHAPES AND PLACES

by Jane Smith

5 January – 16 April 2018

Pictures at Play

5 January – 16 April 2018

A striking collection of linocuts and stylised graphics form the basis of this visually sumptuous exhibition by East London based artist Jane Smith.

Jane takes inspiration from ordinary local surroundings as much as iconic buildings and familiar street locations, which form an eye catching range of work for this exhibition.

Having worked as an illustrator for over 30 years on commissions for a wide variety of clients, including the BBC, The Times, The Guardian, Ted Baker, Greenpeace, Habitat and Nokia, Jane is now concentrating on her own work, allowing her love of architecture, cityscapes, maps and East London to fuse into a more personal response, which is refreshingly expressed in line drawing and linocut.

Lines, Shapes and Places includes a range of Jane's building prints, both bold and delicate, along with some original drawings of East London done in situ and a selection of linocuts and illustrated maps.

Responding to the exhibition

Beneath some of the artwork there are chalk boards for visitors – young and older - to make their own responses, or leave their own creative imprints for others to enjoy. There is also a specially created Gallery Trail for children to complete.

School and community groups can visit free of charge by pre-booking and can use our Gallery Trail to support Arts Award Discover and Explore. Contact Androulla on 020 7709 8908 or youth@halfmoon.org.uk for more information.

Gallery @ Half Moon schools workshop programme generously supported by The Finnis Scott Foundation.
