

A message from the team...

We hope you enjoy today's performance. As this is the last session of the term and Youth Theatre will be taking a break over the summer period we would like to thank you for all your support of Moonbeam Youth Theatre this term.

We subsidise our seven Youth Theatres to keep the fees affordable for all. The true cost of a session is around £10.50 per child. That's why we are appealing for people to support us by setting up a standing order. A regular donation is the best way to help us as it allows us to plan for the future. Even a small amount each month makes a big difference to us and to young people's lives. If you think you can help us please pick up a standing order form from our foyer, or talk to a member of staff or, pop some change in our dragon donation box in the foyer.

We are extremely grateful to the following trusts who have supported our Youth Theatres:

BBC Children in Need
The Bernard Sunley Charitable Foundation
Charterhouse Charitable Trust
The Fitton Trust
Jack Petchey Foundation
and the many individuals who made donations.

About Half Moon

we include, we inform, we inspire

Half Moon Theatre aims to produce and present professional theatre for and with young people that informs, challenges and shapes their artistic potential, placing these creative experiences at the core of the company's policies and practices.

Spring Sharing

Come and explore with Moonbeam as they take us on a whirlwind journey through Ancient Egypt, on a quest to explore and discover all the treasures hidden there. But watch out! Who knows what may be buried deep within the burial chambers...

This term we have had lots of fun creating our very own story about Ancient Egypt, learning to work, create and write together and have relished the opportunity to work in full costumes and with props!
