

Can you help?

Half Moon is a charity, and the fees everyone pays for Youth Theatre cover just 37% of the cost of running the sessions. Our small and dedicated team fundraises the remaining 63% to ensure that young people in east London have access to affordable and inclusive drama activities. This amount doesn't include the additional costs of running the building, which are increasing rapidly. In the past year, our energy bills have risen from £8000 to more than £20,000 per year. This is why we are asking for your support now. If you are in a position to help us by making a donation today or by adding a donation when you pay your Youth Theatre fees, it will make all the difference to us and the young people we support.

Please, help us to continue the valuable work we do with your young people by speaking to a member of staff about how you can make a donation.

Thank you to our donors:

THE SOS EXPERIENCE

A fascinating peek into the UK's most iconic film and television studios: Solar Original Studios. Home to legendary cooking show Ready, Steady, Witches and acclaimed singing contest The Voice. Come along on the backstage tour to see the hidden secrets of the costume department, experience a day in the life of a busy CEO, visit the SOS audition room and take a ride on our shuttle bus!

This term we used costume as the stimulus to devise our scenes. The title for the show came to us when Saira spontaneously grabbed a microphone and sang SOS by ABBA for the group.

We asked Dana and Jamie, who are leaving Solar this term, to choreograph a big ensemble movement piece for our grand finale. Get ready for some epic moves and a lot of sass!
