

Art at Half Moon

Since 2012, Half Moon has collected a range of art from previous exhibitions to put on display throughout the building, in meeting rooms, offices, passageways and other surprising places. How many can you find?

Our Stages of Half Moon exhibition is now on permanent display in the upper corridor. It is overflowing with pictures and original posters, so do take a look and learn more about the rich heritage of Half Moon Theatre.

About Half Moon

Half Moon is a vibrant young people's theatre in Limehouse, East London, offering a theatre programme which attracts thousands of people to the building each year. Our professional theatre productions for young audiences tour throughout the UK.

We also have an extensive Creative Learning programme, giving children and young people from birth to 18 (or 25 for disabled young people), an opportunity to participate in a variety of creative activities in schools, community settings and in our own building.

The company is one of Arts Council England's National Portfolio Organisations and also receives grants from the London Borough of Tower Hamlets. Each year we have to raise over £150,000 in additional grants and donations, so please contact us if you can help in any way.

Mailing List

If you would like to be added to our mailing list for future exhibitions, please leave your contact details with staff at the box office or in the office. Alternatively, you can sign up via our website, www.halfmoon.org.uk.

THERE'S NO OTHER WAY

by Katy Christianson

10 January – 11 July 2022

At a time when the world is starting to re-engage with travel, Katy Christianson's timely exhibition, There's No Other Way, explores the experience of slow travel and how 'no-fly' can be part of a more sustainable way to explore the world.

Based on the illustrator and printmaker's experiences of travelling only by boat, road or rail to places including Shanghai and Vancouver, this visually striking selection of work asks how human journeys interact with landscapes and nature's natural cycles of seasonal migration.

Katy's hand-drawn illustrations use a selection of approaches, including intricate monochrome and layers of bold colours, and draws beautifully on her library of unique handmade textures. Inspired by vintage travel posters and wildlife illustrations, visitors are asked to consider adopting more sustainable life choices in the light of climate change.

Katy lives in South East London and works out of her studio in Peckham, SE15. Her clients include Quadrille Publishing, Harper Collins, Lake District Estates, Carlton Publishing and Cath Tate Cards.

Responding to the exhibition

Beneath some of the artworks there are chalk boards for visitors - young and older - to make their own responses, or leave their own creative imprints for others to enjoy. There is also a specially created Gallery Trail for children to complete.

School and community groups can visit free of charge and can use our Gallery Trail to support Arts Award Discover and Explore. Contact Beccy on 020 7709 8908 or youth@halfmoon.org.uk for more information.
